Performance study in French horn is an individual course of study personally designed for each student. There will be one private lesson per week. Materials will be selected based on each student's needs.

A final jury performance for the brass and percussion faculty is required. Grading is based on student final jury grade. The instructor may raise or lower the jury grade based on attendance, lesson preparation and attitude. Students with disabilities or special needs will be accommodated by the instructor.

Contact instructor in or before the first week of classes to arrange lesson time.
